Worcester County League of Sportsmen's Clubs

"Young Guns" Trap Championship

SUNDAY • 13 AUGUST 2017 * 1PM NIMROD LEAGUE OF HOLDEN PRINCETON, MA

Dedicated to John O'Leary

John T O'Leary, was many things to many people. A devoted husband, loving father, caring uncle, and known by all as an outdoorsman and conservationist. He had a passion for all type of bird hunting and all sportsmen related activities. The only thing he enjoyed more than plucking a bird from the sky (clay or pheasant), was taking a newbie out to share his stories and educate them in the art of shooting.

John was always involved at several sportsman's clubs and served on many a trap and sporting clay's committee. He was a dedicated member of the Worcester County League, in which he held many positions including President.

The Worcester County League of Sportsmen's Clubs dedicates the 2017 "Young Gun's" Championship to our friend, John T. O'Leary

About Worcester County League

The Worcester County League started in 1929, and today, we have membership of over 50 sporting clubs in Worcester County representing over 35,000 active sportsmen. The League mission and focus is:

- To educate the public to preserve and protect natural resources including multiple use and public access to lands and waters.
- To promote and perpetuate fishing, hunting, trapping, firearms ownership, the shooting sports, and compatible and related forms of outdoor recreation.
- To foster good sportsmanship in the safe enjoyment of these great natural heritages.
